20-Year's anniversary Specialty club for Iberian Fancy Pigeon breeds

Text and photos:
Aviculture Europe.

This anniversary was celebrated on the weekend of 20 to 21 November 2009, with a Jubilee show in the Kleindiercentrum, Zuiderpark in The Hague, but also with a festive dinner in a restaurant in The Hague.

Right above: One of the unifying factors is the semi-annually SIS Bulletin. A wonderful magazine with 70 pages in full colour.

Right:
Jos van Dorp, judging the Gaditano Pouters, assisted by

Right: A beautiful red coloured Laudino Sevillano Pouter m/o, with: 96 points. Owner: Marcel Fehling.

Below: A Morrillero of Simon van Leijen. In the A.O.C. class m/y, with 95 points. It is difficult to get this breed showing off. This cock must show much more typical blowing in the neck. But as happens with males, he is in action, by cooing, as you can see below right.
